

I believe that if large entities are allowed to own the majority of the Public Airways, the amount of opinions available to listen to will drop from hundreds to a very few.

A healthy Democracy requires a forum for hundreds of opinions not a few.

The Public Airways belong to the Public not to Private interests. I do not believe, nor do I expect, private interests to give me unbiased information. This move only serves to privatize a very valuable public commodity. I say NO NO NO